Got Dry Cuticles?

All Season Nails Cuticle Conditioning stick is your answer to thirsty cuticles!

Valencia, CA – March 1, 2010

Butter your fingertips up with two new irresistible cuticle-conditioning sticks by All Season Nails! The rich cuticle conditioning shea butter sticks are available in two fantastic fragrances, irresistible French Vanilla Cream and Purely Pomegranate & Acai. The convenient sized (1.6 gm, net wt. 0.56 Oz.) butter sticks are great for on the go! The slim tube can be easily taken along in a small purse or makeup bag for quick and easy touch up treatment to hydrate dry or cracked cuticles on hands and feet. The cuticle conditioning sticks are enriched with a blend of shea butter, Jojoba and olive oil. These natural ingredients soften, condition and moisturize cuticles and skin with time-released emollients that slowly release cascade of oils into the nail matrix supporting healthy growth of natural nails. It is important to keep cuticles hydrated and sealed to reduce the chance for infection or irritation to the skin around the nails.

The cuticle conditioning sticks are available at any Sally Beauty locations. This product is great for giving your clients the option to maintain their professional spa manicure/pedicure after their service! You can also make your client feel extra special by including this into the service. After you have polished the nails and they have dried completely, add a dap of the shea butter stick onto each of the cuticles then hand your client the stick to take home for at-home maintenance program. This will make the client feel extra special as though you truly care about their nail needs while they are away from the salon/spa!
